

Rug & Carpet Cleaning

This well established business has over a 50 year history in rug, carpet and upholstery cleaning. Name recognition and reputation make this an attractive acquisition for those seeking a profitable business with great growth opportunity. Their certified technicians are experts in evaluating and cleaning high quality area rugs, carpeting and upholstery as well as many other household textiles.

This is a business with an established repeat clientele and an untapped market. Because the owners have taken a professional but low key approach to running their business, there is significant room for expansion for the growth and marketing oriented owner. Word-of-mouth and Yellow Pages have been the means used to sustain the business; so, the time is right for a well-conceived and executed marketing plan to expand the business.

There are untapped new markets, including commercial and hospitality clientele as well as expanding the current residential market. Increasing Internet presence and utilizing cost effective SEO could add to the immediate growth of business.

Those seeking the benefits of small business with the ability for growth should look closely at this opportunity. For those desiring real estate, their long- time building location may also be purchased.

Sunbelt Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement

The undersigned prospective purchaser (“Buyer”) hereby requests confidential information, currently and from this time forward, on businesses represented by Sunbelt Business Advisors (“Sunbelt”). Buyer hereby acknowledges that Sunbelt first provided such information to the Buyer. In consideration of Sunbelt having provided such information, the Buyer hereby agrees:

1. Any information Sunbelt provides about a business was obtained from the business owner, and Sunbelt makes no representations or warranties as to its accuracy or completeness. Buyer is solely responsible for investigating all aspects of the business and obtaining any legal, tax or other counsel Buyer deems necessary, prior to purchasing the business.
2. Any information Buyer is given about a business, including its availability for acquisition, shall be treated as confidential and proprietary. Buyer shall not disclose, without prior written permission, any such information to any third party except Buyer’s representatives/affiliates engaged in evaluating the information, and shall obtain the agreement of such third parties to maintain confidentiality. If Buyer decides not to purchase the business, Buyer shall promptly notify Sunbelt of this fact and shall promptly return all documentation without retaining copies, summaries, analyses or extracts. Any unauthorized disclosure shall constitute a material breach of Buyer’s duty to the Seller and Sunbelt and could result in their seeking recourse against the Buyer. Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold Sunbelt harmless from any liability resulting from such unauthorized disclosure.
3. The Seller of each business about which a Buyer shall be given information by Sunbelt has entered into an agreement providing that Seller shall pay a fee to Sunbelt if, during the term of that agreement or within twenty four months thereafter, the business is transferred to a Buyer introduced by Sunbelt. Should Buyer, Buyer Family Member or anyone with whom Buyer is connected acquire any interest in or become affiliated in any capacity with such a business, Buyer shall protect Sunbelt’s right to a fee from the Seller.
4. Buyer shall conduct all inquiries into and discussion with any business about which Sunbelt provides information solely through Sunbelt, and shall not directly contact the owner, employees or other representatives of the business except by prior arrangement with Sunbelt.
5. If Buyer breaches the terms of this Agreement or in any way interferes with Sunbelt’s right to a fee, Buyer shall be liable for such fee and any other damages, including reasonable attorney’s fees. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its breach shall be settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association by one or more arbitrators appointed in accordance with those rules. Any arbitrator so selected need not be a member of the American Arbitration Association.
6. Sunbelt may act as a dual agent representing both Buyer and Seller. In a dual agency situation, the agent has the following affirmative obligations to both the Seller and the Buyer: a) a fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with either the Seller or the Buyer, b) diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent’s duties, c) a duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith and d) a duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the business that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties.
7. Buyer Acknowledges receiving a copy of this Agreement.
8. The undersigned executes this Agreement on behalf of Buyer and warrants that he/she is duly authorized to do so.

Disclosure Regarding Agency Relationship

When you enter into a discussion regarding a business opportunity transaction, you should from the outset understand what type of agency relationship or representation you have with a Business Broker.

AGENT REPRESENTING BOTH SELLER AND BUYER

A Business Broker, a California licensed Real Estate Salesperson or Real Estate Broker, can legally be the agent of both the Seller and the Buyer in a transaction (dual agency) and is hereby notifying you that this is the situation in most of his/her transactions.

In a dual agency situation, the Business Broker has the following affirmative obligations to both the Seller and the Buyer:

- (a) A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with both the Seller and the Buyer.
- (b) Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties.
- (c) A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.
- (d) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the business that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties.
- (e) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the desirability of the Buyer - financial history, creditworthiness and background of the Buyer that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties.

A Business Broker is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party that does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

In representing both Seller and Buyer, the agent may not, without the express permission of the respective party, disclose to the other party that the Seller will accept a price less than the asking price or that the Buyer will pay a price greater than the price offered.

The above duties of the agent in a business opportunity transaction do not relieve a Seller or Buyer from the responsibility to protect his/her own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express your understanding of the transaction. A business broker is a person qualified to advise about buying and/or selling business opportunities. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional.

Throughout your business opportunity transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form, depending upon the number of Business Brokers assisting in the transaction. The law requires each agent with whom you have more than a casual relationship to present you with this disclosure form.

Unless the potential buyer discloses to Sunbelt at this time that they are currently represented by a broker, the potential buyer acknowledges that they are not represented by another broker and that Sunbelt will be acting as a dual agent. Buyer retains the right to their own representation; however, by signing, they recognize that Sunbelt is not under compulsion or responsible to co-broke, once signed.
